ORTONVILLE PHYSICIAN TO RECEIVE MMA COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

MINNEAPOLIS – Robert Ross, M.D., will receive the Minnesota Medical Association's Community Service Award at its 153rd Annual Meeting. The award honors MMA physicians with an outstanding record of community service.

Ross began his Ortonville practice in 1977, and is a family physician at Northside Medical Center in Ortonville. His practice includes minor surgery and maternity, pediatric and geriatric care. Ross also serves as coroner for Big Stone County. He has made outstanding contributions to smoking cessation in his community.

The award will be presented at the MMA Awards Luncheon on September 14. The Minnesota Medical Association is a professional association of about 10,000 physicians, medical students, residents, and fellows.
