ROCHESTER PHYSICIAN REELECTED TO MMA BOARD OF TRUSTEES

MINNEAPOLIS—The Minnesota Medical Association has reelected Daniel E. Maddox, M.D., of Rochester, to serve a three-year term representing the Southeast District on the MMA Board of Trustees.

Maddox practices internal medicine at the Mayo Clinic. He has served on several MMA committees: Medical Practice and Planning, Public Health and Preventive Medicine, and Legislation. A past president of Zumbro Valley Medical Society (1995), Maddox was appointed to the Executive Committee of the MMA Board of Trustees in 2007.

The MMA is a professional organization representing about 10,000 physicians, fellows, residents, and medical students in Minnesota. The Board of Trustees manages the affairs of the MMA between sessions of the House of Delegates.

The election was held September 19 during the MMA's 155th Annual Meeting in St. Paul.
