Time Frame of the Accreditation Process

An organization's accreditation is effective upon the date of Committee action and extends until subsequent action, normally taken in the last month of the accreditation term. A typical time frame in the accreditation process is shown below:

Initial Applicants
January – April	Pre-application submitted and reviewed
May – July	Self-Study Report and PIP Files due
August – September	Survey conducted
October	Final Committee action
May – August	Pre-application submitted and reviewed
September – November	Self-Study Report and PIP Files due
December – January	Survey conducted
February	Final Committee action
September – December	Pre-application submitted and reviewed
January – March	Self-Study Report and PIP Files due
April – May	Survey conducted
June	Final Committee action
Accredited Applicants
January – February	Resurvey notice sent
May – June	Self-Study Report and PIP Files due
August – September	Survey conducted
October	Final Committee action
July – August	Resurvey notice sent
October – November	Self-Study Report and PIP Files due
December – January	Survey conducted
February	Final Committee action
October – November	Resurvey notice sent
January/February of following year	Self-Study Report and PIP Files due
April – May	Survey conducted
June	Final Committee action